

About The Company

Weather Risk Management Services Pvt. Ltd. is leading global provider of climate risk management services. We call ourselves "Climateers" who provide innovative products and services that help solve the climate related problems of individuals, entities and governments. Managed by Professionals from premier institutions of the country such as IIT, IIM and ICAI, company takes pride in being most innovative company in our area of work.

National Claim Manager

Job Description:

This profile requires,

1. Management of different state agricultural insurance team.
2. Identification of people and vendor at different location for agricultural and insurance activity.
3. Meeting clients for business development and to understand their requirement and ensuring that it is delivered to them timely through regional team.

Skills

Recruitment and Team Management, Vendor Management, Proposal Writing, Excellent Communication Skills, Managing large teams, extensive travelling

WEATHER
RISK